We can get it for you!
InterLibrary Loan (ILL) can locate and borrow materials for you that are unavailable from the UF Libraries.

WHO can use ILL?

- All University of Florida faculty, staff and students (including distance patrons) can use ILL.

Exceptions:

- Health Science patrons have their own ILL service via the Health Science Center Library: http://library.health.ufl.edu/services/interlibrary-loan/

- Affiliates of the College of Law also have their own ILL office: https://uflib.illiad.oclc.org/illiad/fub/logon.html

HOW do I order?

- First, create an account at: http://cms.uflib.ufl.edu/accesssupport/InterlibraryLoan

Once you’re registered and logged in, you can request an Article or a Loan.

WHAT kind of materials are hard to borrow?

- Rare or old items
- Newly published materials
- Foreign theses and dissertations
- Media (CDs & DVDs)
- Current textbooks

HOW MUCH does this cost?

ILL is FREE to UF patrons.

HOW LONG can patrons keep ILL materials?

- The loan period is set by the lending library, so it can vary widely. The average loan period is 2-4 weeks.

- Renewals may be possible. They must be requested via your ILLIad account BEFORE the due date!

- Items are subject to recall.

- ILL privileges will be blocked if items are overdue.

HOW do I get my article?

- Articles are delivered electronically – log into your ILLIad account to download.

- You have up to 30 days to view the article.

WHERE do I pick up and return my loans?

- Materials must be picked up and returned to the circulation desk on the second floor of Library West.

- Do NOT use the book drop to return ILL items!
